COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Participants are presented an overview of the Guided Reading process, a small group approach to the teaching of reading. Designed for K-3 teachers, this course introduces teaching formats from the early emergent reader to the fluent reader. Each format is studied in the areas of the teaching format, the book type, and the student characteristics appropriate for that level. This course concludes with a demonstration lesson.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

- Attend all sessions.
- Read Guided Reading: Making it Work and Matching Books to Readers: Using Leveled Books in Guided Reading, K-3.
- A course project is required and must include selecting one of the following Guided Reading lesson formats appropriate to the reading level of the students. Prepare and present two Guided Reading lessons:

    - First Emergent
    - Second Emergent
    - Transitional
    - First Fluency
    - Self Extending

Complete the lesson reflection record sheet for each of the lessons and bring the lesson plan, reflection sheet and copy of the book used to the last session.
